TOM CORWINE SPEAKS AT Y. M. C. A. MEETING

Sixty men gathered at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon to hear Tom Corwine of Chicago. Mr. Corwine's subject was "Talents and Gifts," which he introduced by quoting Paul's charge to Timothy, "Neglect not the gift that is within thee." Referring to his own inimitable gift of "making noises," he described in a simple, unassuming manner some of the work he had been able to accomplish for the benefit of others by means of this extraordinary talent which he had developed so perfectly. Mr. Corwine's talk was full of practical, helpful advice, the gist of it being that everyone had some talent, however insignificant it might be, which the world needed and which should be developed and used for the benefit of others.

Mr. Corwine was for twelve years secretary of a railroad Y. M. C. A., and showed his familiarity with railroad life by using some very forceful illustrations in railroad terms. He also gave, in accordance with previous announcement, some "sample sounds," which pleased the audience immensely. These were introduced in the course of his address, being used as illustrations of some points advanced. His imitation of three different steamboat whistles, the opening and pouring of a bottle of liquor and the fighting of four dogs of varying sizes, were simply perfect. There are 175 different imitations in his repertoire, and those who hear his program tonight certainly have a treat coming. He is assisted in this entertainment by Miss Hayfa Haines, a reader of excellent merit, and the evening will be a profitable one, as well as uproariously funny. Tickets are now on sale at the Y. M. C. A.

After he's gone, you'll wish you'd heard him. Be wise, don't miss him. He's the only Tom Corwine. Y. M. C. A. tonight at 8:30.

thirty out at the league service last evening, and all were prompt in taking part, thus making a very good meeting.

At the last business meeting of the league, two new members were received, Miss Swanson and Mr. Randall. It was one of the most enthusiastic meetings of the year and it is hoped the interest will keep up, for on the success of the business meetings largely depends the success of the society.

Rev. H. Van Valkenburgh's congregation was pleased to see him in his accustomed place last evening and also glad to know that his little daughter is steadily improving in health.

The Easter exercises at the M. E. church yesterday morning were exceedingly good and much credit is due the committee, who so carefully planned and faithfully worked in preparing the program. The church was prettily decorated and the audience seemed to enjoy and appreciate the efforts of the children.

Remember the music of the barnyard of the old home farm? It'll be reproduced to perfection by Tom Corwine, at the Y. M. C. A. tonight. Don't miss it.

Card of Thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Turner wish to express their heartfelt thanks to their many friends who so kindly remembered and aided them in their recent afflictions, in the loss of their little son, and of Mrs. Turner's father.

FIFTY PEOPLE WITH "THE BURGOMASTER"

W. P. Cullen has made a big revival of Pixley & Luder's famous musical comedy success, "The Burgomaster," and will present it at the Duncan, Tuesday evening, with a large cast, headed by Harry Hermesen. This sterling player in the role of the genial old Peter Stuyvesant, burgomaster of New Amsterdam, and Willie the gay youth who leads the governor around New York when he is re-incarnated.

The company will number 50 people. The production is an especially handsome one. The costumes have been revised and are all new. Especial attention has been paid by Mr. Cullen to the voices of the chorists, as well as to the beauty of the feminine portion. "The Burgomaster" was the first of the Pixley & Luder pieces to gain popularity, others being "The Prince of Pilsen," "King Dodo," and "The Grand Mogul." The music is of the singing and whistling variety, and it is said that more copies of "The Tale of a Kangaroo" and "I Love You" have been sold than of any other songs brought out in musical comedies.
